

NEWSLETTER

President's Message:

- Welcome back to a new school year. It remains an exciting time to be a social studies teacher. Don't forget to sign up for the fall conference on 3 October at the Nebraska Educational Telecommunications facility at 1800 North 33rd Street in Lincoln. You can sign up online. You may see a sample agenda the NSCSS web site at: www.nebraskasocialstudies.org
- We need nominations for outstanding teacher in the three congressional districts, student teachers, and the Paul Beck Award. You may get that information on the web site as well.
- The State Council typically meets on the first Monday of each month. The September meeting will be at NET on Monday 14 September. We will meet at 5:30 PM. All are invited to attend this and all meetings. We need input from the membership. Please feel free to contact anyone on the Executive Committee for any needs that you may have.

Have a great school year and we hope to see you on October 3rd,

- Jack Brestel
NSCSS President

Hot Internet Links

The National Council for the Social Studies website contains useful links to resources and professional development opportunities, as well as information of the NCSS National Conference.

<http://www.socialstudies.org/>

World History for Us All is a powerful, innovative model curriculum for teaching world history in middle and high schools.

<http://worldhistoryforusall.sdsu.edu/default.htm>

FOR MORE DETAILS, CHECK US OUT ON THE WEB

<http://www.nebraskasocialstudies.org>

2009/2010

Fall Conference

October 3, 2009

NET Studios

Lincoln, NE

“Social Studies: A Door to the World”

Register Online Today!
www.nebraskasocialstudies.org

Call for Nominations !

Paul Beck Distinguished Teaching Award
Outstanding Educator Awards
Outstanding Student Teacher Awards

<http://www.nebraskasocialstudies.org/awards.html>